

PACIFIC COAST SOCIETY OF ORTHODONTISTS

Call for PCSO Bulletin Editor-in-Chief Candidates

The PCSO Bulletin has been a valuable member benefit since 1922. PCSO currently seeks a Bulletin Editor-in-Chief to take office in October 2021, with a transition to occur over several months after the election. If necessary, phone interviews will take place in January 2021. In-person interviews will occur at the end of February with the full PCSO board of directors.

Are you interested in and engaged in many aspects of the orthodontic specialty — clinical, educational, or administrative? Are you active in organized orthodontics and dentistry?

Would you enjoy leading a team of professionals who are excited about telling the story of orthodontics, of the PCSO, and its members?

Are you intrigued by new techniques and seek solutions for difficult problems? Do you learn from case studies and professional networking?

Is reading professional journals something you value? Do you see these journals as an integral part of your profession and the orthodontic specialty?

Can you imagine yourself working with PCSO leaders and sharing knowledge about the profession's clinical and historical aspects to assist with their planning and decision-making?

If you answered yes to any of the questions above, the position of PCSO Editor-in-Chief might be right for you.

To learn more about this opportunity, contact Callie Castro at ccastro@pcsortho.org or current Editor-in-Chief, Dr. Jae Hyun Park at JPark@atsu.edu.

If you are interested, please send a letter of interest documenting relevant experience and current CV no later than December 15, 2020 to:
